

LMI Institute

Established in 1994, the LMI Institute is a nonprofit member network of state labor market information (LMI) offices, organizations, and professionals seeking to advance the art and science of LMI. The Institute supports the national LMI infrastructure, comprised of all LMI data producers and users, through training, research, program management, and partnership facilitation.

Vision. The LMI Institute is the pre-eminent resource for supporting the development, interpretation, and use of labor market information.

Mission. The LMI Institute supports and promotes the production and use of high-quality workforce and employment information. We accomplish this mission by:

- Providing training and professional development to state and other LMI professionals.
- Improving the knowledge, skills, and understanding of LMI customers.
- Offering management, coordination, and analysis to support the nationwide LMI infrastructure.
- Fostering and encouraging the use of local, state, and national LMI in decision-making related to workforce development, economic development, education, and other relevant policy areas.

Our Work.

The LMI Institute serves its members through an extensive work program, which includes:

Technical Training

The LMI Institute offers a comprehensive training program for professionals in LMI and related disciplines. The LMI Institute develops and delivers standard and customized courses nationwide.

Research

The LMI Institute conducts research on issues impacting the LMI infrastructure on behalf of state agencies, LMI support organizations, and charitable foundations.

LMI System and Program Support

The LMI Institute offers strategic planning, management, staffing, and coordination services to other LMI support organizations.

Partnership Facilitation

The LMI Institute partners with federal agencies and other national associations to further support LMI producers and users.

LMI Institute Annual Forum

The LMI Institute, in collaboration with the Council for Community and Economic Research, convenes hundreds of researchers to exchange ideas and explore the latest advances in community, economic, and workforce development research.

Membership Opportunities.

The LMI Institute's membership model reflects the entire LMI infrastructure. Through membership, the LMI Institute seeks to bring together a variety of LMI stakeholders, such as:
